Students intending to enrol in this course must live with a parent or close family relative throughout their period of enrolment. Students may enter this course at any Year level throughout the course. Parents/guardians must arrange suitable visas to be able to live in Australia with their child whilst their child is enrolled at Korowal.

Student English language proficiency will be assessed on an individual basis. Parents/Guardians must be able to communicate in English.

Junior Secondary Course

This course is designed for students who have completed their Primary schooling. Students are generally 11 to 12 years of age when entering this course in Year 7. It is a 4 year course leading to the award of the NSW School Certificate at the end of Year 10. Students may enter this course at any Year level throughout the course. Students in Years 7 and 8 must live with a parent or close family relative throughout their period of enrolment.

Students entering Year 9 and beyond may continue to live with a parent or close family relative or enter into a homestay arrangement. The school can organise a suitable homestay family if requested. Parents and students must read and agree to the “Homestay Code of Conduct” included in the Information package.

Overseas students are also required to take part in ESL [English Second Language] classes once they have commenced at the School. The cost of these classes will be included in the tuition fee charged by the School. If, in the judgment of the School, such ESL lessons are not needed, no rebate of the tuition fee will be possible; in the experience of the School, it is very unlikely that this situation will arise.
